DEDICATION

Sister Ann Elizabeth

Having known your kindness since we entered Charity as probationers, we have wanted to show our appreciation many times. Your interest in our well-being, our many social activities, our problems, and in ourselves has endeared you to all of us. As director of our extra-curricular activities, you have shown sympathy and understanding.

We'd like to say, "Thank you." Your high principles have inculcated in us a desire "to pass our lives in purity and practice our profession faithfully." We dedicate to you our 1945 CAPS AND CAPES.

With love and affection,
THE SENIOR CLASS, 1945

And Now We Present Caps and Capes

I am solemnly aware of the obligation I assume toward my country and toward my chosen profession;

I will follow faithfully the teachings of my instructors and the guidance of the physicians with whom I work;

I will hold in trust the finest traditions of nursing and the spirit of the Corps;

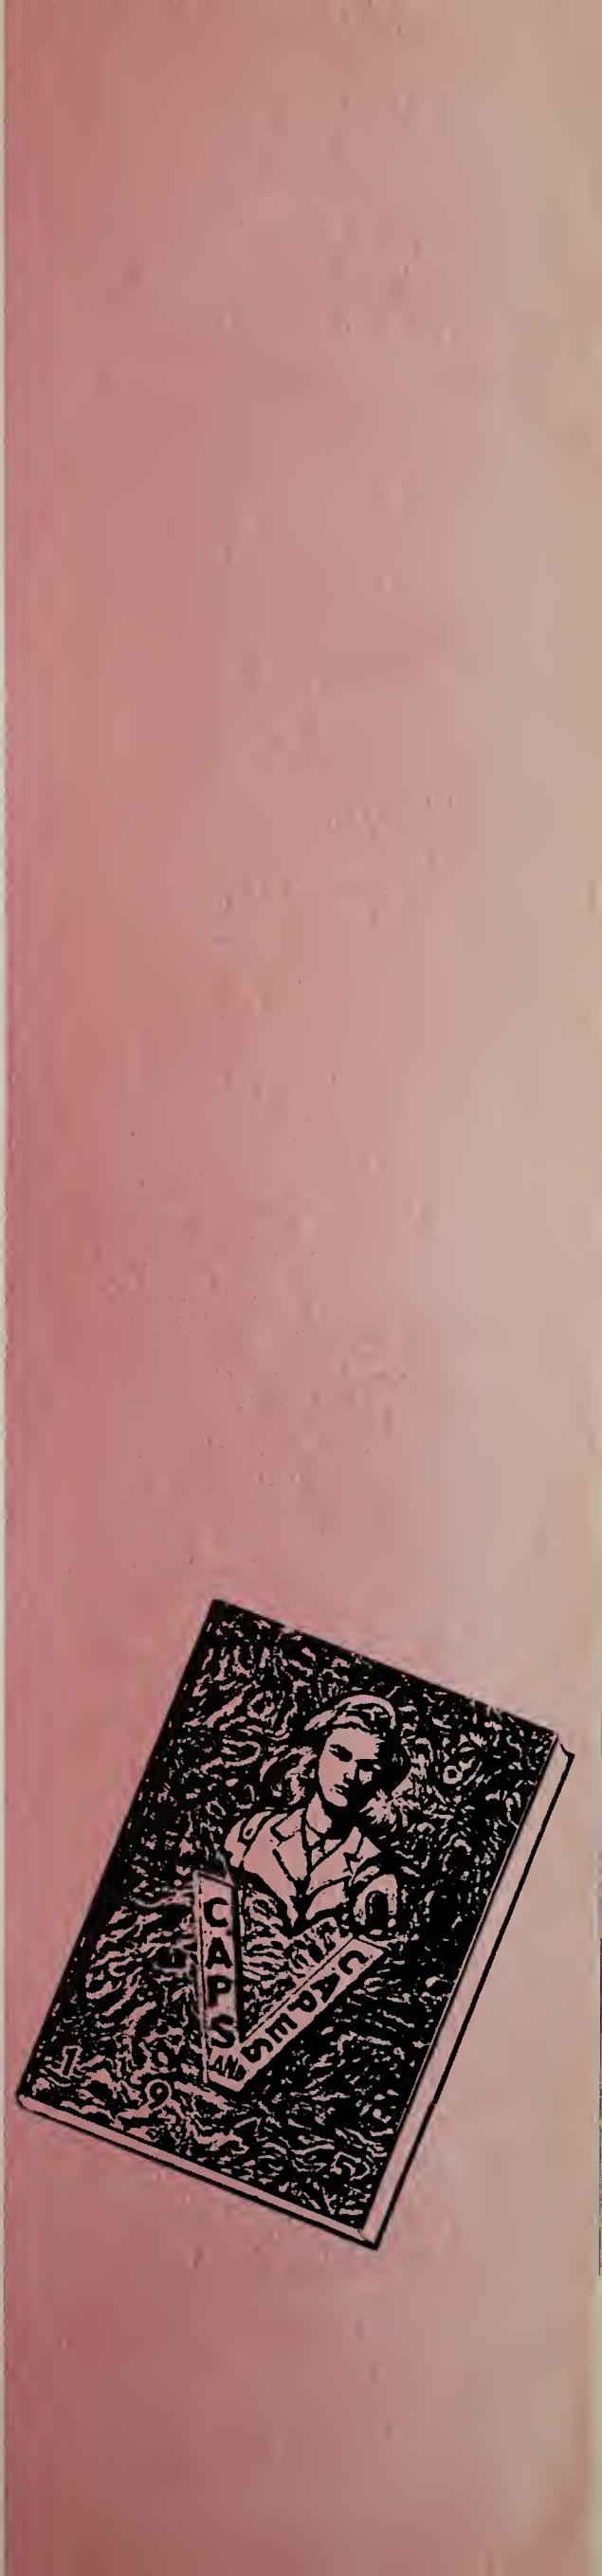

I will keep my body strong, my mind alert, and my heart steadfast;

I will be kind, tolerant and understanding;

Above all, I will dedicate myself now and forever to the triumph of life over death;

As a Cadet Nurse I pledge to my country my service in essential nursing for the duration of the war.

SISTER STANISLAUS

Your pride in us, your loyalty to us is a wonderful reason for being the good nurses and students you expect us to be—an inspiration to be as fine as we can—an example to be as kind, courageous, and charitable as we are able—we admire and love you, Sister Stanislaus.

DR. O. P. DALY, DIRECTOR OF CHARITY HOSPITAL

THE EXECUTIVE STAFF

It's a familiar thing to see Dr. Daly in the corridors of the hospital. Though the past years have been trying ones, Dr. Daly and his assistant, Dr. Roscoe Pullen, have been untiring in their efforts toward excellent supervision. Even in this wartime accelerated program, Dr. Daly has found the time to show personal interest in our nursing school and its nurses. This interest has carried him into the hearts of the faculty and students alike.

JEANNE M. WALLACE: Placed Clearwater, Florida, on the map as far as Charity is concerned . . . Social Club, '42-'43 . . . Student Council representative, '43-'44 . . . proudly wears Σ A X pin . . . can even discuss Plato's Republic.

EDNA P. WARD: Native of the city and very proud of it . . . "Boodie" to all she meets . . . full of wit and humor . . . a regular occupant of the infirmary, but never let's it bother her . . . the perfect companion for "Mac," White and Georgia . . . with "Boodie" duty is a major thing . . . happy-go-lucky in personal appearance, but can look as "smart" as the next one.

VIRGINIA LEE WHITE: Happy-go-lucky of New Orleans, Louisiana . . . swiftly varying moods . . . room is an "open house policy," but she can still look as if she stepped from a band box . . . "Let's have a picnic and go fishing" . . . a careless air that might belie the depth beneath . . . speaks German well . . . ambitions are many.

DORIS E. ASHWORTH: Fun-loving, Doris has come to us from dear old Texas—Houston to be exact, and how she does love Houston. She has an oversupply of vim, vigor, and vitality. We seem to think that she'll now settle for one good-looking gob. By the way, she's a grand nurse.

IRIS M. BABIN: A Raceland gal . . . one of her outstanding features is her frankness, but she's easy to get along with. She's a lover of dancing and dons evening attire occasionally to journey to Camp Plauche. She's a good nurse and a "good ole girl."

MARGUERITE H. BENGE: Our red-headed Marguerite is from the Crescent City. Quiet? How could she be with that red hair? She's an efficient nurse of first order and has an impressive menagerie—a canary and a goldfish being part of it.

LORRAINE O. BERNARD: To mention Lorraine Bernard without mentioning "Sub" would be incomplete because they go together like bread and butter. He's across the pond again, but she's true blue. She helped efficiently on the Birthday Party Committee in May, '43. She's from Opelousas, Louisiana.

ERA BROWN: A mixture of sugar and spice and everything nice. She's an all-around type with an accent on a sweet and charming manner. A transfer from Natchez, Mississippi.

VELMA M. BLANCHARD: Petite, quiet Velma Blanchard, from Raceland, Louisiana, is another of our best nurses. She was indispensable to the Uniform Committee in '43-'44 and a good example to the rest of us by her careful grooming. She resides in the Benge menagerie and they make quite a pair.

ETHEL M. CHACHERE: Romantic New Orleans gave us "Skippy." Skip belonged to the Glee Club in '42-'43, was in the "Caps and Capes" play in May, '43, belonged to the "White Cap" business staff in '43-'44. She has gobs of vim, vigor, and vitality.

IONE C. BOWEN: A New Orleans resident—tall brunette with a quiet voice and graceful walk. We're all proud of her for her good work in the play, "Little Women." She's a hard worker and ever-present member of the Sorority Club.

NORMA R. CHAMPAGNE: from Raceland, Louisiana. Her second vocation should be sewing. Comes a dance or another special occasion, we all run to Norma for dressmaking help. She leads with a smile and is one of our all-time favorites.

SOLEDAD G. CHAVEZ: Known to us only as "Sally" . . . another one of our charming señoritas. El Paso sent her to us in '43 to become an "Angel of Mercy." Tops in looks, well dressed and a "good old girl" is Sally.

CONSTANCE L. COLWET: Slow and easy going, is everyone's friend . . . attractive, well-dressed, and a conscientious nurse. She has also helped to entertain servicemen at Camp Plauche dances.

MARION K. COMAS: Known for all her romantic episodes, but she has now settled down to a handsome Navy flier, Carl. Stunning is the word for her. She was vice-president of the Freshman Class in '43-'44. Oh, yes! She hails from Ojus, Florida.

NUNCIE CORRERO: One of our most lovable students is Nuncie Correro—to know her is to love her. She is a member of $\Lambda \Sigma E$ and $\Sigma A X$, a short brunette, pleasing personality and an attractive girl. She's been outstanding in her church work and believes in doing things the right way. Received honorable mention for graduation honor pin. We thank Drew, Mississippi, for her.

HAZEL M. COVINGTON: From Walker, Louisiana . . . practical, serious-minded. She's a good friend to all, a hard and conscientious worker. She was a member of the Uniform Committee in '43-'44.

GRACE CUTRER: Chock full of "dry wit" is Grace Cutrer. She's from Osyka, Mississippi, a good, all-around gal with a frank manner. She's a good nurse and will go places with her nurse-missionary work.

PATRICIA L. DAIGLE: Churchpoint has sent us "Patty." She now has obtained a new name, Mrs. Jack Swafford. Best of luck to you both, Jack and Patty. Oh, yes, Patty is quite "eager-beaverish" and did a splendid job in the production of "Little Women" by the Dionysians.

LAURA O. DUCKER: From Natchez, Mississippi . . . a tall brunette, friendly, eager to please, and enthusiastic about her nursing profession. She and Nona Duplantis are amiable roommates.

DIAMANTINA DELGADO: From El Paso, Texas, to join us has come "Tina." An enthusiastic church worker and also a good nurse. She is clever and quick on the comeback. Tina also enjoys dancing—jitterbugging, her specialty.

ELAINE M. DUCLOS: "Kewpie" to all of us—is a native of our fair city. Conscientious, and reliable, she has served as acting treasurer in the preclinical class, and treasurer in her freshman and senior years. She's noted for keeping accurate records and always keeping some cash in the treasury. She was a charming addition to the March family in "Little Women."

MARIE DiVINCENTI: A New Orleans girl. President of Dionysians, '44-'45. Her outstanding work as prefect of the Catholic Sodality will long be remembered. Helmed our freshies' ship and did a good job. She's an ardent volleyball fan. Keep up your good work and good nursing, Marie.

NONA A. DUPLANTIS: Houma, Louisiana. She is easy going, gay, and brings sunshine into many of our dull moments. Her cheerfulness consoles her patients. She is capable of handling most any nursing problem.

MYRLE M. EASLEY: Osyka, Mississippi. She is quiet, demure, and a good friend to have; her heart is as big as her desire to be a nurse . . . and she's doing a bang-up job of that.

ROSA LEE ENSMINGER: When Rosa Lee came to Charity from Natchez, Mississippi, little did she know that she would lose her heart to "Ike," a dental externe. She's now found wearing a diamond on the third finger of her left hand. She's a dependable and capable nurse.

KATHRYN G. FIELDS: "Genie" to all of us is one of our best nurses. She's always ready to do her share. The Marines are her favorite branch of the armed forces. She dresses well, loves to dance, was "Caps and Capes" organization editor, '44-'45.

BILLYGEAN FINCH: Billygean Finch left Kentwood, Louisiana, to become an angel of mercy. She's quite a girl, well liked, and eager-beaverish. She attends all of our social functions and most of those given by L.S.U. and Tulane. We can't decide whether her heart belongs here, in Birmingham, or in France. She was a member of the Uniform Committee in '43-'44 and '44-'45.

BLANCHE E. FLETCHER: Another El Paso, Texas, miss. She and Janice Temple are constant ladies everfaithful. All who have worked with Fletcher have enjoyed it. Have you ever heard her talk about Joe, her one and only? We say, "Hats off to him" for choosing such a swell gal!

AMA M. GABB: Blonde, petite, and blessed with interesting prattle. She has convinced us that precious things come in little packages. We have all wondered for two and a half years how this little New Orleans girl can manage to walk in those extremely high heels she dotes on wearing.

EDNA M. GANNON: New Orleans gives us Edna, a cute brownette. As the '43-'44 Freshman Class secretary, she did a good job. She and her roommate, "Covey," make quite a pair. Even though she has attended several army dances, her heart belongs to Johnny—she sports his wings.

MARY E. GARBER: All of us know Mae from Lake Charles, Louisiana, by her decided French accent which has helped in many skits and plays we have had. She's a good nurse, and regardless of the time, Garber greets all with a winning smile.

PEARL M. GUILBEAU: Comes from deep in the fishing country, Golden Meadow. She's a quiet, petite blond with pretty blue eyes and a pleasant smile.

LUCILLE M. HAAS: A good athlete from Gramercy, Louisiana. She goes for volley ball in a big way . . . did a good job in October, '43, when she was on the Birthday Committee. Lucille is a swell girl with a lot of wit, knowing when and where to use it.

MILDRED E. HINSHAW: New Orleans, Louisiana . . . calm, conscientious, one of our best nurses. She never gets upset, or loses her temper . . . dependable . . . reliable.

ALINE V. HYMEL: From Hammond, Louisiana, she journeyed forth from her home to become an R.N. and to keep us entertained with her wit . . . one of our outstanding volley ball players . . . has a way of getting into trouble, but manages to get out of it.

GRACE O. JOHNSON: Grace, next to nursing, proves to be best talented in sports. She's equally good in basketball and volley ball. She has a good personality, helps "put over" our class picnics and just has a way with her patients. They, like we, think she's swell. She hails from Evergreen, Louisiana.

ELDIES M. LABBE: One of those swell girls that Houma, Louisiana, sent to New Orleans to prove her capabilities. She was in the Social Club in '42-'43. Eldies wears cute clothes and leads a Navy L.S.U. student a rugged life.

BETTY NAN KELLIS: Betty has a personality that bubbles like a glass of champagne unless she has a good case of the "reds." Her "reds" usually develop from "No letter today," from that good-looking Ensign in San Diego. She's Σ A X, '44-'45 a charter member of Λ Σ E, and "Caps and Capes" associate editor. She's a Houma, Louisiana, girl who is getting her B.S. degree when she finishes here.

HELEN V. LOUNSBERRY: DeQuincy, Louisiana. She enjoys dates and dancing and is ever on the go. She has an inquiring mind and keeps us all guessing what she will ask next.

EVE M. KLIEBERT: A conscientious nurse and honor graduate . . . winner of the second scholarship . . . Nothing is too big or too small for her to do for her patients if they need it. She also enjoys studying. Her best trait is dependability. Eve served on the Infirmary Committee in August, '43. Her home town is Vacherie, Louisiana.

AGNES F. MacARTHUR: From Glenmore, Louisiana, has proved to be a very capable leader of Protestant Chapel and was one of our best Student Council members in '43-'44. She loves nursing and her patients love her. She is one of the sweetest girls we know.

MARGUERITE ("MAC") McCARDELL: "Wit on a live wire" . . . friendly . . . quick tempered . . . practiced nursing in home town, Franklin, Louisiana . . . useful member of the "White Cap" staff . . . Athletic Club, '42-'43 . . . a likeable life of the party.

FLORENCE C. MOREL: Comes to us from New Roads, Louisiana . . . active in boosting dances at Camp Plauche. Her attitude toward nursing is good—she does her work exceptionally well.

BETTY J. MITCHELL: Ponchatoula, Louisiana. Betty is one of our twins. She has helped to the utmost to promote school spirit at class functions, especially our picnics. When she and Pat get together, we're quite confused.

EFFIE M. MOSS: Quick spoken, casual mannered . . . one of the best-liked students around. She comes from Crowley, Louisiana, and served on the Infirmary Committee in March, '44, and attended many of the Army dances during '43-'44.

PATRICIA M. MITCHELL: Ponchatoula, Louisiana . . . Pat is the other twin . . . she has done her share of helping to entertain Uncle Sam's boys. She's proven herself a good nurse.

LOIS A. PERIERA: Very vivacious personality from Raceland, Louisiana. Her heart belongs to a certain Army lieutenant. She's been wearing a beautiful sparkler for the past year and here's hoping she may soon wear the band to match.

LOTTIE M. PIKE: Easy going Lottie comes from Tangipahoa and loves the town. She enjoys entertaining soldiers at the dances given at one of the local army camps. She's a good nurse and is very congenial with all.

EDITH V. PRICE: From Summit, Mississippi (sister of Julia) . . . served on the Infirmary Committee in '43. She, too, is a very active member of B.T.U. at Central Baptist Church. She's a good nurse and has an abundance of dry wit.

JULIA B. PRICE: Summit, Mississippi, sent us two sisters. Julia has been very active in Baptist Church functions. She did a very good job on the Infirmary Committee in September, '43 . . . a sympathetic nurse.

C. CATHERINE PURVIS: Jonesville, Louisiana . . . always greets you with a smile. A happy disposition is her special characteristic . . . transferred from Natchez, Mississippi, and we were happy to receive her.

IRIS E. REGISTER: One of those North Carolina gals coming from Goldsboro. She's very devoted to her state and doesn't mind admitting it. Her motto is "early to bed and late to rise," but that's how lots of us feel. She's a good nurse and is conscientious in her studies.

INA MAE ROBERTS: Bade farewell to Evergreen, Louisiana, to become a white-starched girl, and is doing a good job of it. She belongs to the Athletic Club with volley ball as her favorite sport.

C. GRACE SCHEXNAYDER: Has been a member of Student Council for two years and one of the best sports we have. She and Skippy Chachere are inseparable. Grace hails from Gramercy, Louisiana.

MABEL M. SIMON: Crowley, Louisiana, has sent one of our most conscientious nurses. She is equally conscientious in her church work. She is very quiet, but has a sunny disposition.

MAGGIE R. SISTRUNK: Seen but seldom heard is Maggie Ruth Sistrunk, but she is very good at asking the "why" of things. She is from New Orleans and Charity thanks this fair city for such a fine girl.

DOROTHY SMITH: From Goldsboro, North Carolina . . . is a lover of semi-classical music. She is a charter member of $\Lambda \Sigma E$ and a member of the Uniform Committee, '44-'45 . . . likes her work and devotes the rest of her time to thinking of a Tulane student. She's just "Dot" to us.

THERESA L. SONGY: From Houma, Louisiana, comes this tiny brunette, with a pleasant smile and a very quiet manner. Whenever you feel up to some good exercise, indulge in a game of tennis with Theresa—that's her favorite sport.

ANNIE L. TAYLOR: From Union, Louisiana. She's a cute brunette . . . popular . . . and loves to dance. Her favorite male name is "Jack." She and Norma Champagne are roommates and are inseparable—they have a common bond—love of picnics.

JANICE M. TEMPLE: Hammond, Louisiana. Her middle name should be "Perseverance." Janice is easy to get along with, and all of us enjoy working with her. She helped many an affiliate through her lonesome moments. She was a member of the Uniform Committee in '43-'44.

GENEVIEVE T. TRENTCOSTA: New Orleans, Louisiana . . . a short brunette with lovely, curly hair. She has a mind of her own and sticks to what she thinks.

MARTHA J. THOMPSON: Comes from Smackover, Arkansas. She's well known here at Charity for her jolly good nature. She, G. Webb, and H. Tregre are the three musketeers.

GLORIA M. WEBB: Fun-loving Gloria is from the Crescent City. She has a wide variety of interest—nursing, athletics, and dancing. She is a blonde and has dimples so pretty no one could miss them. She and her roommate, Martha T., are always going on diets—the outcome of which we never see.

HAZEL M. TREGRE: Hornville contributed this cute brunette. In September, '43, she served on the Infirmary Committee, and she proved that she has what it takes. Her personality is something that's extra special.

NATALIE O. WIRTZ: Sincere, serious, a tiny blonde with a quiet manner. She belongs to the Songy-Berrong-Wirtz trio. Her home town is Covington, Louisiana.

Under the quiet, yet capable leadership of Mary C. Roth, the Student Council has successfully carried on for one more year. Council, an active symbol of the honor system, provides a closer relationship between the student body and the faculty. Its constitution is made by the students with the approval of the faculty. The president and vice-president of the council are chosen from the senior class by student vote; the secretary is from the junior class; treasurer is from the freshman class; and two representatives are chosen from each class.

MEMBERS

Mary Roth, President; Grace Schexnayder, Vice-President; Barbara Quebedeaux, Treasurer; Shirley Perry, Secretary; Rosa Kidder, Virginia Brewer, Catherine Sible, Donna Morris, Evelyn Kelly, Beryl O'Reily, Mary Metheny, and Amy Kinkler, Jeanne Warren, affiliate, Highland Sanitarium; Madeline Dotson, affiliate, Sparks Memorial Hospital; Miss Laurence Bernard, Faculty Advisor.

To those who make Sarah Gamp only a legend, we devote these two pages. They maintain the regulations to make Charity nurses more aware of complete, immaculate, beautifully arranged uniforms.

The White Cap has filed away another volume of information for students and graduate nurses. This bimonthly student publication, edited by Anna Mae Waguespack and staff, has done a fine job of reporting for the '44-'45 school session. The capable staff and entire student body take pride in their school newspaper as member of the Associated Collegiate Press.

CAPS AND CAPES

This year's CAPS AND CAPES is proof that with work, sleepless nights, and the guiding hands of fate a yearbook can become a reality. But in the midst of our woes we have laughed, cooperated, and found much pleasure in giving you something tangible by which to remember places, events, friends, your Alma Mater. Mary Finnorn, our former sponsor, and Marjorie Zibilich, present social director, aided us immensely and we cannot thank them enough. Now that our prodigal child is published, we bow and give it to you, and hope you enjoy it.

This is the youngest offspring that grew out of a desire among nurses to establish a sorority honoring those students who have shown loyalty, school spirit, and scholarship. It was started at Charity this past year largely through the efforts of Miss Mary Finnorn, our past social director. Gussie Heard held the gavel, and Betty Trosclaire officiated when Gussie was not present. Ava Newton records all notes.

CATHOLIC ORGANIZATION

The Study Club and the Sodality are two Catholic organizations at Charity founded to aid the nurses spiritually. The organizations teach high ideals of Catholicity and lead to better nurses and citizens. Father Miget instructs the members of the Study Club, and well-known guests are invited to give lectures and have discussions with the students. Sister Ann Elizabeth is moderator for the Sodality.

THE PROTESTANT CHAPEL

Sponsored by the Protestant Ministers Organization of New Orleans, this chapel includes the Protestant student nurses and medical staff of Charity. Members are guided toward principles of good living and ideals of Christianity.

The SOCIAL CLUB

The Social Club was organized to interest students in social activities. Its members include the lonesome Louises as well as the popular Pollys. At present it is being reorganized under our capable social director, Mrs. Zibilich, and promises much in the way of dances, teas, picnics, wiener roasts, and what-have-you? No "solitaire" allowed here.

The Glee Club was organized because some nurses couldn't help singing. They took bows at several appearances at general assemblies and especially during the Christmas season with their "Noels." Carmen Remond calls meetings to order. Ava Newton steps in when Remond steps out. Joycelyn Schully pinches pennies for the girls and serves as secretary while she "accentuates the positive."

(APPRECIATION)

The Frenchmen would click his heels, bow from the waist, and flash his disarming smile in gratitude. Indeed, he does himself credit when he wishes to express thanks. However, we must be content in trying to convey to you our appreciation by writing a few well-chosen words, thanking those who shared our headaches, our laughs, our work, our fate in making 1945 Caps and Capes a reality.

In compiling our material, our social director, Mrs. Zibilich, has been invaluable and tireless in her efforts to help us. Miss Finnorn, Mrs. Zibilich's predecessor, started the staff out on the right foot way back in 1944.

For the cooperation and patience we have had from Mr. Benson, Moore's Studio, Mr. Trice, and representatives of Shreveport Engraving Company we are grateful. Wartime lack of film, lack of personnel and material in general have gone hand in hand with a few more headaches; but we can say that we all came out unscathed as far as cooperation is concerned.

Our class members have trotted about helping us financially. The Sisters have been inspirational and have given us their whole-hearted support. To our advertisers, to all who gave us a boost we bow from the waist, smile, and say "Merci beaucoup."
